Subject: Books authored by Departmental Officers - reg.

1. We have a lot of talent in the Department with Officers who have great skills in writing and have authored books both on technical subjects as well as non-technical subjects including fiction. The number of such authors that NACEN knows are very few. However, during conversation with Officers it is learnt that quite a few of Officers have indulged in writing and authoring various books on several subjects including fiction.

2. The Library is essential part of the total infrastructure and the same in NACEN is updated with new books both technical and non-technical. To encourage and promote creativity we in NACEN Faridabad have a separate section in the NACEN Library designated as "Books by Departmental Officers". This not only promotes a sense of pride and identity for the Officers but it creates an awareness of such books and the hidden talents available in the Department. In this context it is suggested that the various Chief Commissioners/ Directors General conduct a survey amongst their officers regarding books authored by them and provide the information to NACEN in the format as detailed below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sl.No.</th>
<th>Title of the Book</th>
<th>Type (Fiction/ Non-Fiction /Technical etc.)</th>
<th>Name of the Publisher Address &amp; Contact No.</th>
<th>Name, Designation of the Author Present posting address</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. Based on these reports sent by the field and Directorates we would compile a comprehensive list which would be circulated amongst various RTIs of NACEN for necessary action including procurement.

4. If possible, these authors may be requested to send a copy of their book(s) to NACEN, Faridabad for display in the Library.

Yours faithfully,

( Harmmeet S. Singh )
Director General
