MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS
GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

NORTH BLOCK, NEW DELHI - 110001

April 30, 2015

Respected Sir,

The Padma Awards, namely, Padma Vibhushan, Padma Bhushan and Padma Shri, are amongst the highest civilian awards of the country. Instituted in 1954, these awards are announced on the occasion of the Republic Day every year. The award seeks to recognize 'work of distinction' and is given for distinguished and exceptional achievements/service in all fields/disciplines, such as, Art, Literature and Education, Sports, Medicine, Social Work, Science and Engineering, Public Affairs, Civil Service, Trade and Industry etc. All persons without distinction of race, occupation, position or sex are eligible for these Awards. A copy of the statutes and rules relating to these awards is enclosed (Annex - I).

2. It is the conventional practice to invite nominations for these awards from all Ministries / Departments of the Government of India as also several other sources to enable broad-based consideration. The nominations are to be sent in the enclosed proforma (Annex - II). As you would notice from the proforma, in addition to the bio-data, a detailed write up (citation) in narrative form (maximum 800 words), clearly bringing out the distinguished and exceptional achievements/service of the person recommended in his/ her respective field/discipline, has to be provided in each case. We would also like to bring to your kind notice that nominations received without the filled up proforma and citation (maximum 800 words) will not be considered. All relevant columns of the proforma are also expected to be completed in all respects.

5. It has been observed in the past that while nominations are received in respect of a large number of persons, there could, however, be several talented persons who are left out of consideration despite exceptional contribution in their field. Often many of these persons may get overlooked primarily for the reason that they may not seek publicity or attention in the public domain. We would, therefore, request you to make concerted efforts in identifying such persons whose excellence and achievements really deserve to be recognized, and make suitable nominations in their favour. It goes without saying that recognition of such deserving persons will only add to the luster of these awards.

6. In the above background, we would to request you to kindly send suitable nominations for the Padma awards to be announced on the occasion of Republic

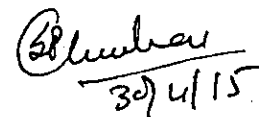

Day, 2016. While finalizing the recommendations, the following points may be kept in view:-

- (i) Persons recommended are pre-eminently worthy of the awards, looking at their life-time achievement. The criteria for selection should invariably be 'excellence plus' and the highest standards should be applied while recommending persons for these awards. The existence of an element of public service in the achievements of the person recommended for the award would be a desirable factor.
- (ii) As the Padma Award is the second highest Award of the country, it should be considered whether the recommended person has earlier been given any national award or at least a State Award in his respective field.
- (iii) Efforts may be made to identify talented persons from amongst the weaker sections of the society, like SCs & STs, handicapped persons, women, etc., who deserve to be considered for the award.
- (iv) The decoration is normally not conferred posthumously. However, in highly deserving cases, Government could consider giving an award posthumously if the demise of the person proposed to be honoured has been recent, say within a period of one year preceding the Republic Day on which it is proposed to announce the award.
- (v) A higher category of Padma award can be considered in respect of a person who has earlier been conferred an award provided a period of at least five years has elapsed. However, in exceptionally deserving cases, a relaxation can be considered.
- (vi) Government servants including those working with PSUs, except Doctors and Scientists, are not eligible for Padma Awards.

5. The receipt of the nominations/recommendations for the Padma Awards will begin from May 1, 2015 and the last date for receipt of the recommendations for Padma Awards in this Ministry is September 15, 2015. The cut-off date may please be strictly adhered to, as recommendation received only during 1st May, 2015 and 15th September, 2015 will be considered.

With regards.

Yours sincerely,

30/4/15
